Die Octavae Nativitatis Domini ~ I. classis

The YOUNG MESSIAH, a recent movie giving a glance at the childhood of Jesus around the age of 8, captured the attention of our Servers of various ages on their Appreciation Day last Tuesday, December 27th. Since it invites questions and reflection, there will be a viewing and discussion in the Buddeke House this Wednesday, January 4th for adults in place of the Catechism Study beginning at 7pm. This movie is quite pertinent to the Christmas season. Bring your favorite snack to share—hot chocolate and whipped cream provided. All are welcome! - Father William
