THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 5, 2017

Dominica XXII Post Pentecosten I. Novembris ~ II. classis

Father William writes: In November, our memories, as Catholics, turn to the people in our lives who have gone before us and for whom we are grateful. In the first place with the recent All Saints' Day, we are mindful of Our Lady and St. Joseph, the Apostles, and all the men and women who, from the time of our First Parents forward, found favor in God's sight as they passed through the gates of death. The holy ones in heaven, "saints" as we call them in English, give an example of holy living, and they aid us with their prayers. With All Souls' Day our thoughts turn to the Departed we have known and we pray that their purification in the merciful cleansing of Purgatory may be accomplished soon. The whole month of November is devoted to prayers for the Faithful Departed. November reminds us that we are part of the Communion of Saints in which God mercifully allows the exchange of spiritual gifts among His faithful. On Tuesday 31st October the Director of Occupational Therapy from Richland Place came to the house where I live at Assumption to evaluate it for safety upon my return. My recovery has been advancing well. My general health is robust with great blood pressure and no sugar issues. If you hear rumors to the contrary, ignore them! Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy and the Nursing Staff met to discuss my case and the discharge date set is 7th November. I will be using an electric wheel chair and a walker for some weeks. I see the surgeon on November 15th for more X-Rays; Dr. Moore is confident that some weight-bearing on my right leg will be possible so that I will gradually return to full use of both legs. Meanwhile I can stand on my left leg and I am permitted to rest my right foot on the ground for balance. I will do all and only what my doctors allow. Certainly, on my return I will be able to hear Confessions, see people for pastoral reasons as usual, and offer Mass, especially on weekdays. A small temporary ramp will be placed on the floor in front of the sanctuary gates to allow wheel chair access to the sanctuary. I look forward to my return on the 7th. Two verses (12-13) from Psalm 116 (115), which are said quietly by the priest at the Extraordinary Form Mass before he receives the Precious Blood, fill my heart these days: "How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me? The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name."

Sunday Morning Religious Education Announcement: The Religious Education of our school age students has been ably coordinated for the past 18 months by Mr. and Mrs. Chris and Cassi Frazier. With the coming of their second baby, Chris and Cassi have found it necessary to hand over their responsibilities to a new Team as of Nov. 1. The new elementary school coordinator will be Mrs. Kay Bulzacchelli. The Confirmation and High School coordinator will be Mr. Freddy Quiteno. The Church teaches that while the religious education of children is primarily the responsibility of Catholic parents, never the less, the whole Catholic community has a serious responsibility to hand on the Faith. So our coordinators and teachers perform and apostolate, which they do as a delegated responsibility from the whole Parish. We thank Chris and Cassi, and have every confidence that the high standard they have set will be continued by Freddy and Kay. —Fr. William

Priesthood Sunday Follow Up Thanks to your prayers and a strong vocations program in the Diocese of Nashville, we have ordained many new priests over the past few years. Now we have 25 seminarians who are preparing to be our future diocesan priests. As a follow up to last weekend. Please give generously and pray for vocations to the priesthood. Envelopes can be found in the back of the church.

First Sunday Brunch Join us Today for a potluck brunch after the 8:30 a.m. Latin Mass.

Catholics United for the Arts Next meeting will be Wednesday November 15, 2017 the Church of the Assumption Buddeke Hall 7pm. - 8:30pm. 1227 7th Ave N. Nashville, TN 37208 Buddeke Hall. Guest speaker screenwriting professor of the Nashville Film institute, Chris Foley will give a talk on "storytelling." We will begin the meeting with the rosary and brief discussion on the Poor souls in Purgatory. Any questions please contact: Mary Beth at catholicsunitedforthearts@gmail.com

The Luncheon is back! Next Sunday November 12 there will be a luncheon after the 11:00 Mass. Barbeque Pork, rolls and coleslaw will be provided. Bring a dessert to share if you are able, but plan to attend either way. All are welcome to come and share a meal and some fellowship.

Seminarian Patrick Held is asking for the names of any deceased loved ones that you would like to be included in his seminary's Book of Life. The names written in the Book of Life will be prayed for at all Masses this month. Names can be sent to him at the following address: Patrick Held 2901 South Carrollton Ave. New Orleans, LA 70118

Nashville Catholic Business Women's League: Join us Wednesday, Nov. 15 at the University Club as we welcome guest speaker, the famed portrait painter Igor Babailov, Hon RAA, as he addresses the topic "Portrait Master to Popes, Presidents, Celebrities, and Distinguished Families". 40 Days for Life last day with Stations of the Cross is today, Sunday, Nov. 5, 2:00 pm, Planned Parenthood sidewalk at 412 Dr.D.B. Todd Blvd. Families, please come! We need young people to support the 6 ft. crosses and hold the Stations. We appreciate all those who came out to pray even for one hour during 40 Days for Life. Our parish participation is unusually low right now. We can do better. Our presence is important because when we are on the sidewalk praying, hearts and minds are changing. It's powerful to see this. Women come and talk and take prolife pamphlets.. People driving by ask about the prayer vigil. Many don't know that Planned Parenthood is an abortion center. The spring campaign during Lent can be better coordinated at Assumption with more parishioner involvement. If you would like to help me, please email Marilyn Cox, marilyn.e.cox@me.com.
