MARCH 4, 2018

Dominica III in Quadragesima
~ I. classis

Fr. William writes: I am grateful for the kind messages promising prayers as I return for 10 days to Saint Michael's Abbey. You should check out our Abbey website at: stmichaelsabbey.com. It is a blessing to have Fr. Benedict O'Cinnsealaigh here to cover the Ordinary Form English Masses, the Confessions and Stations of the Cross. Fr. Christiano Nunes from Immaculate Conception Parish Clarkesville has kindly agreed to offer the Extraordinary Form Masses this weekend and on Monday.

Fr. Benedict was born in Dublin, Ireland. It seems a good idea to have an Irish priest offer Mass for St. Patrick's Day and preach. The 6pm Mass on March 16th will be an anticipated Mass for St. Patrick's Day. There will be a celebration in Fr. Bernard Hall after Mass. I requested from Bishop Spalding a dispensation from Friday abstinence for those attending the celebration - he willingly granted it. Corn beef and cabbage, as well as beverages will be provided. Those attending might like to consider bringing a dish or desert to share. For ideas, see the Parish website: assumptionchurchnashville.org While Assumption Parish in Germantown has a decidedly Teutonic heritage, from earliest days, there were also a significant number of Irish and Irish Americans in our membership as the Sacramental records show. I myself, have no blood, but Irish and St. Patrick is one of my favorite Saints; he did so much for God! I hope to see you there on March 16th!

Please join us after the Latin Mass today for our First Sunday Brunch!
All are welcome to join us!
